What's new at the 24h

What's new

🏃 A renewed walking and running route which extends over 5 kilometers. A perfect balance between the atmosphere of the village and the magic of the forest with a return to the golf course

🏂 Adding a second, easier ski run with a festive on-piste experience - subject to change depending on Mother Nature's mood

🔊 Removal of the ski buddy to offer you an improved on-piste experience: more space, better snow quality and less waiting time at the lifts

🎉 The official “Zone 24h” has been completely reconfigured to ensure smooth travel and maximum fun!

🟢 A dedicated entrance to transition zones, away from the crowd

🎁 Lots of contests to celebrate and recognize your efforts, and take you on a trip through the E+ Club and the Air Canada $500 Challenge

🏔️ A trip to Banff for the Captain of the Year offered by Pay Facto

  - 1 participant per team is admitted
  - Wearing a bib is compulsory
  - All disciplines combined
  - Position yourself in the Departure Preparation area * see map p.18
- Parade and non-competitive walk of honor

Our entertainment team will guide you through each step upon departure, this is for informational purposes only.

Equipment preparations for the official start

SKI

- Before the official start: Place your skis and poles on the ski rack near the gondola (a volunteer will guide you)
- Recommended you do the parade with espadrilles, but you are free to wear your ski boots :) - it's up to you to determine the optimal strategy for your first tour

WALK AND RUN

- Locker room available in the walk and run transition zone to store your personal items after the first lap

ALPINE TOURING

- Before the official start: Place your skis and poles on the ski rack in the alpine touring transition zone
- We recommend you do the parade with espadrilles, but you are free to wear your ski boots :)
- it's up to you to determine the optimal strategy for your first tour

First tour procedure

- 1 participant per team takes part in the starting parade;
- The starting participant must wear his bib and time chip;
- The parade will travel through rue des Remparts towards the base of the mountain;
- It is at the base of the mountain, at the entrance to your respective courses, that the sporting challenge will begin;
  - For the walkers, if other teammates wish to take the first lap with the participant who did the parade, this is where you can join them;
- Walk-run: the cabriolet is an integral part of the course, up and down, even if you do more than one lap during your relay.

Maximum number of participants on the course per discipline, after the parade:

- Ski : 1
- Alpine touring: Up to 12
- Walk, walkd+run: Up to 12
- Run: 2
